Keynote/Workshop: Break Through “Candidate Clutter” to Find Your Perfect Fit

HR and hiring managers are inundated with resumes and interview pitches from candidates. Sometimes, it can feel like you’ll need psychic qualities to break through all of the grandstanding, over-rehearsing, or even dare we say, faking. But when you find your needle in a haystack, the impact of your hire on the business, and those rising company stars – can make you feel like a rock star!

In this session, Julie will reveal, her top tips to find your perfect candidate fit. What interview questions break through the clutter to reveal deep intel on candidates? What are the most common mistakes made in hiring that result in remorse, for the ones that got away? When you are staring at 2,000 candidate profiles, what is the best way to find your needle in that haystack?

Julie will cover all this and more in this not-to-be-missed session!

WHO IS THIS FOR?

- HR professionals and hiring managers at all levels of an organization

KEY TAKEAWAYS:

After this session, attendees will:

- Improve hiring processes with strategies and efficiencies that eliminate common mistakes which get in the way of finding top talent
- Learn to interview jobseekers much more effectively - cutting through the clutter, and getting to the heart of what each candidate really has to offer
- Be able to evaluate talent not only based on skills and experience, and also on culture, organizational, and team fit
